AMERICAN LETTER.

SAN FRANCISCO, JAN. 11, 1892.
WASHINGTON NOTES.

Among the 336 bills introduced in the Senate Jan. 5th with still a dozen States to hear from, were twenty-eight tariff bills, thirteen pension bills and seven Constitutional amendments providing for the election of Senators by popular vote. The tariff bills aimed to abolish the duties on grain, bags, binding twine, sugar, molasses, wool, coal, iron ore, etc., to repeal the retaliatory sections of the McKinley law, abolishing sugar bounties, and put on the free list all articles controlled by trusts.

Among the large number of papers presented and referred, was one from the Chamber of Commerce, Seattle, Wash., praying Congress by more liberal appropriations to enable the War and Navy Departments to place the country in a thorough condition of defense.

The question of allowing the Mexican troops to enter United States territory in pursuit of Garza and his band has been informally presented to the Secretary of State and it was one of the topics of discussion at the Cabinet meeting, Friday. Senator Romero, the Mexican Minister, said to Secretary Blaine in an interview:
"The Mexican authorities are hampered somewhat in their operations against the insurrectionists by the habit of the latter in seeking shelter in United States territory." The Mexican Government will soon make a formal application for the privilege refused to.

The advocates of the white metal declare they will not rest until its free coinage is secured.

None of the officers of the Department of State have any knowledge of any agreement made by this Government with that of Italy to pay indemnities on account of the New Orleans affair as reported by an English correspondent at Rome. The subject interrupted last spring by the recall of the Italian minister has never been re-opened.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

Advices from Paris say, "The action of the Government, now that Bulgaria in effect has refused to grant its demands, is eagerly awaited. An exchange of notes between the powers is actively proceeding.
It is stated that Bulgaria sent copies of her reply to the French demands, to England, Austria, Italy and Germany. The note expresses the hope that France will be actuated by feelings of justice, that she will reconsider her decision and that she will again establish friendly relations with Bulgaria. It is pointed out that Bulgaria must give some sort of satisfaction to prevent France from being humiliated.

The troubles existing in the Tanger district of Morocco and the despatching by the British government of two warships to protect British interests in Tangier, have awakened the feeling in some quarters that England has the intention of adding to her territory by forcible acquisition that part of the Sultan of Mo-rocco's dominion. Already reports come from Tangier which state that the British Minister has warned the Governor that if he cannot guarantee the safety of the city against rebel tribes the sailors will be landed from the British warships. This is taken by alarmists to mean aggressions on the part of the British, and the "Sie-cle" demands that the Government despatch the entire French Mediterranean squadron to Tangier to prevent the British from carrying out any designs of an aggressive character they may have formed.

The newspapers in Rome state that Italy will send a warship to Tangier to protect Italian interests.

The Khedive of Egypt is dead.
Said to have died of a gripe, although it is now rumored that he came to his death under suspicious circumstances and it is possible he was poisoned. The political situation is calm to all appearances, but complications are none the less apprehended. Many persons at Cairo distrust the probable influence of England on the young Prince, and consider it advisable that some impartial adviser, not an Englishman, be placed near his person, and that some constitutional combination be sought with a view to English evacuation of the country. The ascension of Prince Abbas, the eldest son of the late Khedive, to the throne of Egypt was announced Saturday.

News from Madrid says: "Saturday night a band of Anarchists, from the country surrounding Xeres, made an attack on that place, intending to pillage the town. The gendarmes heard of the affair and the Anarchists were surprised to find a strong force awaiting them. They made a desperate attack upon the gendarmes and the fight continued until morning, when the cavalry took charge and succeeded in capturing a majority. Several were killed.

Advices from Berlin state that the Reichstag next week will debate a bill for the repression of drunkenness. The Ministers consider the proposals with disfavor. The fate of the measure in the Reichstag is doubtful. The Conservatives and National Liberals will support the
